2022 LOW INCOME SENIORS & PERSONS WITH DISABILITY
* DEFERRAL OF TAX INCREASE *******

If you own a residential property, you may be eligible to defer the annual tax increase if all of the following qualifications are met:

1. You and/or your spouse:
 - are at least 65 years of age prior to January 1, 2022 (born 1956 or earlier), OR
 - are in receipt of assistance paid under the Ontario Disability Support Program (ODSP), a disability paid under the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) or an amount paid under the CPP disability benefit.
2. Your combined income (applicant and spouse) is $38,160 or less as indicated on line 15000 (Total Income) of Canada Revenue Agency's 2021 Notice of Assessment(s), adjusted for pension income splitting, if applicable. If you have elected for pension income splitting, please submit form T1032 (Joint Election to Split Pension Income).
3. You and/or your spouse occupy the residential property as your principal residence.
4. You and/or your spouse have owned the residential property for at least one year preceding the application date.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- Deferral amounts are a special lien on the participating property and will be reflected on Tax Certificates issued.
- An annual application is required to defer the current year tax increase. You may apply at any time during the year (and up until the last day of February of the following year).
- Deferral amounts are not subject to interest while the applicant remains eligible for the program. Where deferral amounts become payable (i.e. property is sold) and not immediately repaid, the outstanding deferral amount will be subject to interest.
- Prior year property taxes, exclusive of prior deferrals, must be paid in full at the time of application.
- Owner or spouse cannot apply for a deferral for more than one property in any year.
- Property must be assessed in the residential property class. For multiple use properties, only the residential portion is used to determine eligibility and the deferral amount.
- Accumulated deferral amounts cannot exceed 40% of the assessed value of the property.
- Persons with Power of Attorney can sign the form on behalf of the owner(s).

Personal information on this form is collected under the authority of section 319 of the Municipal Act, 2001, S.O. 2001, C.25, (as amended), and will be used to determine the eligibility for the Low-Income Seniors or Persons with Disabilities Tax Deferral Program. Questions about this collection should be directed to the Taxation Section, 71 Main Street West, Hamilton, ON L8P 4Y5, (905) 546-CITY (2489).
