Housing Emergency Fund Information Sheet

The Housing Emergency Fund (HEF) is a program to support housing sustainability and eviction prevention. It helps to cover the costs associated with establishing a new residence or to assist you to remain in your current housing, within the City of Hamilton.

Based on your benefit unit composition (household size) for social assistance (OW/ODSP) or as a Low-Income Household and determination of eligibility, HEF is available up to a maximum payment in a 2-year period (24 months):

Benefit Unit/Household Size	Maximum Payment
Single	$3,000
Couple	$4,000
Family (3 people)	$5,000
Family (4 people)	$6,000
Family (5+ people)	$7,000

HEF is only available if:

- you meet the following eligibility criteria:
 - accommodation costs do not exceed 95% of your household income
 - establishing or remaining in housing within the City of Hamilton
 - your circumstances meet a situation outlined in the application (i.e., being evicted, have a disconnection notice for utilities, establishing new or moving to more affordable housing)
- have not received the maximum benefit amount for HEF or a similar housing benefit in the last 24 months (i.e., Housing Stability Benefit (HSB), Rent Ready, etc.)

HEF may be issued to you or on your behalf to a third party (i.e. a landlord or utility company).

Your HEF request form will be reviewed to determine if you meet the criteria and are eligible for the Housing Emergency Fund. You will be notified in writing regarding the decision.

The most up-to-date information about the HEF program, including the application form, is available online via the City of Hamilton Housing Emergency Fund website (www.hamilton.ca/HousingEmergencyFund).
