

Application for Housing

Important! Please Read!

Use this checklist to make sure that you have attached all the required documents.

ATH determines eligibility for Rent-Geared-to-Income (RGI) housing based on a complete application only. Your application will not be accepted and/or placed on the list if the application form is incomplete or if documents are missing.

All applicants on the Access to Housing centralized wait list will only receive one (1) offer of housing when you are the next person on the wait list.

If you do not accept this offer, you may lose your place on the wait list and your application may be cancelled.

Notice of any change in information or documents must be submitted within 30 business days of the change. A longer time may be allowed by ATH or the City of Hamilton.

Application for Housing

Definition of Terms
Building Selection Form	This is a list of not-for-profit housing in Hamilton available through Access to Housing listed by geographical area. This form is where applicants select housing for which they wish to be placed on the waiting list.
Co-Operative Housing	The Board of Directors of a Co-Operative is comprised of resident members of the complex. Members of the Co-Operative are expected to participate in the operation of their Co-Operative. This may be accomplished by serving on the Board of Directors, a committee or contributing to the tasks involved in the maintenance of the property. Co-operatives are a mix of market rent and rent-geared-to-income units.
Homeless Status	Homeless status is special consideration which is given to people who are homeless and includes people who are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Persons burned out of their places of residence – Without shelter – Living in temporary or emergency housing or – Living in a house condemned by the municipality or – About to be discharged from a care facility or – About to be evicted for reasons outside of an alleged breach of the Tenant Protection Act by the tenant – Separated from other family members due to a lack of housing
*Newcomer Status	A newcomer is an applicant with refugee status or refugee claimant status who applies for housing within one year of entry into the country and has an immigration status that meets basic eligibility requirements. Refugees with government sponsorship are excluded. For the application to be given Newcomer Status, both the applicant and co-applicant (if there is one) must be a newcomer.
Non-Profit Housing	This housing can be provided by private groups or a municipal sponsor. Non-profit housing is managed by a Board of Directors which may consist of municipal councillors, interested community members and/or tenant members. The complexes are a blend of market rent and geared-to-income units. Often, non-profit complexes have tenant associations that contribute input to the Board of Directors to affect the management of the residence in which they reside.

Definition of Terms
Priority Status	Priority Status is special consideration which is given to an applicant whose personal safety or the safety of another household member is at risk because of abuse by someone with whom they live or have lived in a familial relationship within the last 6 months. This priority status is given to help the applicant separate from the abuser. To obtain priority status, the applicant is required to submit a Special Priority Verification Form, letter of verification and verification of co-residency. The required form and further information can be obtained from Access to Housing.
Rent-Geared-To-Income	Rent-geared-to-income is rent which is based on household income and/or social assistance benefits.
Supportive Housing	Housing in which the tenant receives staff support or care from one or several agencies.
Terminally Ill Status	Terminally ill status is special consideration given to people who are terminally ill (this status is not granted to people who have serious chronic conditions, illnesses or diseases and who are not terminally ill). To apply for this status, the applicant is required to submit a Verification of Terminal Illness Form. The required form and further information can be obtained from Access to Housing
Urgent Status	Person(s) whose personal safety is significantly at risk. To apply for this status, the applicant is required to submit an Urgent Status Verification Form and a Letter of Verification. The required form and further information can be obtained from Access to Housing.
*Youth Status	The applicant is sixteen to seventeen years old
Assets	Assets include any savings, investments and property owned by any member of the household over the age of 16. Some assets do not count towards the asset limit such as:

Be sure to put your name, social insurance number and initials on each page (front and back) of the Building Selection Form. If you select locations for which you are not eligible, your name will not be placed on those waiting lists.

Application for Housing

Please read the following declarations carefully. Each member of the household who is 16 and older must sign in the spaces below only if you are able to make each declaration.

1. I understand that there are laws that allow Access to Housing (ATH) to collect personal information about me.
2. I understand that ATH will use the information I give them to see if I qualify for the housing I have applied for, to see if I continue to qualify for rent-geared-to-income assistance and to see how much assistance I am eligible for.
3. I allow ATH to give the information on this form and any attachments to the social services offices, other municipal service managers or district social services administration boards, housing providers, without further notice to me, if the information is necessary for the purpose of making decisions or verifying eligibility for assistance under the Housing Services Act 2011, the Ontario Works Act, 1997, the Ontario Disability Program Act, 1997, or the Child Care and Early Years Act, 2014
4. I allow ATH to give the information on this form and any attachments to the government of Canada, a department, ministry, or agency of it, without further notice to me if the information is necessary for the purpose of administering or enforcing the Income Tax Act (Canada) or the Immigration Act.
5. I allow ATH to give the information on this form and any attachments to any government or body with whom ATH has made an agreement under the Housing Services Act 2011, without further notice to me, for the purpose of conducting research to a social benefit program or social housing or rent-geared-to-income assistance program.
6. I understand that any information on this form and any attachment given by the ATH to a body listed above is confidential and will only be given in accordance with the Housing Services Act 2011 and associated regulations.
7. I understand that that this information may be used to determine my credit worthiness. ATH and/or a housing provider may request and obtain personal information on an ongoing basis from credit bureaus from information they previously collected about me in order to assess my credit history.
8. The information provided herein and included with this Application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief and no information required to be given has been concealed or omitted.

The Criminal Code of Canada s.s 380 (1) states that everyone who by deceit, falsehood or other fraudulent means defrauds the public of any property, money, valuable security, or any service, is guilty of an offence.

Personal Information contained in this form or in attachments is collected by ATH pursuant to the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (R.S.O. 1990 c.F31.) or the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and is used to determine eligibility for the housing applied to, continuation of housing and may be used for the appropriate rent-geared-to-income charge.
