Code of Conduct for Employees

POLICY STATEMENT	The residents and businesses of the City of Hamilton are entitled to fair, ethical and accountable local government administration. Accordingly, the City of Hamilton has high expectations of its employees for integrity and ethical conduct in their service to the community. The City recognizes that employees strive to perform their duties in a manner that maintains and enhances public confidence and trust in the integrity, objectivity and impartiality of the City, understanding that trust and mutual respect are the cornerstones of any relationship between the public and its municipal government. City employees owe a duty of loyalty and commitment to the City as a condition of accepting employment with the City of Hamilton. In serving the public interest they are entrusted with access to a wide range of information, resources and responsibilities. The City expects its employees to operate with a sense of honesty and accountability in accordance with the values and goals established in the Mission, Vision and Values of the City.
PURPOSE	The City of Hamilton’s work is diverse, multi-faceted and complex. Consequently, City employees must be independent, impartial and responsible to the public in carrying out their duties. By signing the Code of Conduct for Employees, employees acknowledge and accept responsibility to act and behave in a manner that is consistent with the expectations prescribed in this Policy. Employees collectively benefit from an overall atmosphere of high ethical conduct that flows from this commitment. While it is not possible to cover every possible conflict of interest situation that might arise, this Policy and the related Schedules outline the City’s expectations regarding real and apparent conflicts of interest between an employee’s personal interests and the best interests of the City of Hamilton. If employees have questions or are unclear whether they have a conflict of interest, they are encouraged to discuss the situation with their supervisors or managers.
SCOPE	This Code of Conduct and all related Schedules apply to all City employees, including but not limited to regular, temporary and contract employees, volunteers, students and interns (collectively called “Employees”).

PRINCIPLES

Employees of the City of Hamilton are guided by the following principles:

1. We are a government that the community has confidence and trust in. We are conscious of our City’s public duty and the part that each of us plays in carrying out this duty.
2. We have high ethical standards and are accountable for our actions.
3. We are respectful of each other and towards members of the community we serve. We treat all with dignity and without discrimination.
4. We live our corporate values and demonstrate our shared principles through our work practices, our decisions, and our interactions.
5. We act with Integrity avoiding actual or perceived conflicts of interest.
6. We promote and foster a safe, secure and healthy work environment for all.
7. We abide by the law and adhere to all City of Hamilton policies and procedures.
8. We are conscious of our role as public servants and ambassadors of the City of Hamilton and do not engage in any conduct or business practice which might bring the reputation of the City into ill-repute or damage or diminish the reputation of the City in the eyes of members of the community.

The Code of Conduct for Employees is one element of the City of Hamilton’s broader ethical program that underlies, supports, and is reflective of the City of Hamilton’s corporate culture.

TERMS & CONDITIONS
