Public Health Nurse Services for All Schools

Public Health Nurses work with schools to support the health and wellbeing of children and youth.

Contact your School Public Health Nurse for support with:

- Classroom resources
- Child & Youth Health Atlas Data: www.hamilton.ca/ChildHealthAtlas
- OPHEA Healthy Schools Certification
- Your school’s Health Action Team
- Active & Sustainable School Travel planning
- Information about head lice and treatment
- Access to City of Hamilton and Public Health Services Programs on the following health topics:

- Concussions & Injury Prevention
- Healthy Eating & Food Safety
- Healthy Sexuality
- Immunization
- Infectious Disease Prevention
- Mental Health Promotion
- Oral & Visual Health
- Physical Activity & Sedentary Behaviour
- Substance Use & Harm Reduction
- Violence & Bullying

Check out the Healthy Schools website: www.hamilton.ca/healthyschools

August 2019