Identifying Waterdown’s Built Heritage

19th-Century Cottages
- Ontario Cottage Vernacular (1840s-1890s)
- Gothic Revival Cottage (1860s-1870s)

Farm Houses
- Vernacular Farm House (1870s-1890s)
- Gothic Revival Farm House

Style Influences
- Neo-Classical (1810s-1850s)
- Georgian (1800s-1850s)
- Italianate (1850s-1900s)
- Queen Anne Revival (1870s-1910s)
Identifying Waterdown’s Built Heritage

Early-20th Century
- Edwardian Classicism / Four-Square (1890s-1930s)
- Modest Cottage Bungalows (1910s-1930s)
- Craftsman Bungalows (1920s-1940s)
- Vernacular Cottage (1930s-1950s)

Post-War Cottages
- Vernacular Cottage (1940s-1950s)
- Cape Cod Style (1940s-1950s)
- Vernacular Ranch (1940s-1960s)

Mid-Century and Modern
- Ranch Houses (1940s-1960s)
- Modernism (1950s-60s)
- Brutalism (1960s-70s)
- Suburban Slit-Level (1960s-1980s)
- Suburban Two-Storey (1970s-2000s)
What does “Victorian” Village mean to you?
Share your thoughts!