City of Hamilton

Parking Master Plan

Notice of Study Commencement and Public Consultation Meeting #1

Why is Hamilton doing this Study?

The City of Hamilton has initiated the Hamilton Parking Master Plan to examine existing public parking operations, and provide direction for parking policy, planning, operations, and enforcement that will align with other city-wide transportation and planning policies.

What Process is being Followed?

The Study will be split into three phases:

Fall 2019

1 Review Existing Operations

Public Meeting #1
(Existing parking conditions)

Winter 2020

2 Development Strategies for Improvements

Public Meeting #2
(Proposed strategies)

Spring 2020

3 Provide Parking Master Plan Report

30-day Public Review of Draft Parking Master Plan

How Can I Participate?

Public Consultation Meeting #1

Wednesday, January 22, 2020 from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm
City Hall - Room 192/193 (71 Main St. W. Hamilton, ON L8P 4Y5)
Drop in anytime during hours noted to review information, ask questions, and provide input

Online Survey

Go to www.hamilton.ca/PMPsurvey to have your say in the future of parking in Hamilton

Map-Based Consultation Tool

Go to www.hamiltonpmp.ca to identify specific locations where you see parking issues and room for improvement

Study Website

www.hamilton.ca/parkingmp provides Study updates and consultation activity information

Get on the List!

Join the Study mailing list or request further information by contacting Allister McIlveen, Project Manager, Interim Manager Parking Operations by email (allister.mcilveen@hamilton.ca) or phone (905-546-2424 ext. 6009)

Information will be collected in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. With the exception of personal information, all comments will become part of the public record.