

Water is Life

Did you know that without water there would be no life on Earth?
Just like we need to eat food and breathe air we need water to live.
Over half of your body is water so it's important to drink lots!

